SCHOOL OF ADULT EDUCATION

With an enrollment of nearly 1,100 students, the School of Adult Education, directed by E. M. Hosman, continued with a large variety of courses this year.

The Church Music Institute, held in February, was designed to increase the church musicians' contribution to the church service. The Church Ushers' school, the Parent Education Institute, and the Summer Institute for Women were other highlights of 1944-45. The course in Modern Real Estate Problems and Practices proved valuable not only to those engaged in real estate practice but also to those whose business involved the management, buying, or selling of property. The Midwest Book Reviewers' Guild, which was originated by the School of Adult Education, seeks to make qualified book reviewers available for community and group service.

ALUMNI

Establishment last fall of an Alumni Office at the University and employment of a part-time secretary were the two major steps forward for the University's Alumni Association.

Officers for 1944-45 are Bernard Combs, president; Virgil Sharpe, vice-president; Mrs. Donald Korisko, recording secretary; Ruth Saxton, treasurer; and Mrs. Olga Strimple, executive secretary.

Zella Beebe, Harold Henderson, Mrs. Harold Henderson, William Campen, Virgil Sharpe, Mrs. Virgil Sharpe

JUNIOR CLASS

The Juniors did their share in the many extra-curricular activities of the University. Agnes Stephenson carried a double load as president of the class and as president of the Intersorority Council. The other class officers were Betty Davis, vice-president and Wilma Kruse, secretary-treasurer.

Edith Holmes was editor-in-chief of the TOMAHAWK with Lucy Lindborg as her associate editor. The Student Council members were Virginia Hefflinger, Maxine Paulsen, and Edith Holmes.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Over one hundred students are proud to call themselves sophomores this year. They are being led by Barbara Muir, with Betty Nygaard as vice-president. Jean Liggit is treasurer and recorder of the minutes. The sophomores are represented on the Student Council by Dorothy Drishaus, Barbara Muir, and George Reinhardt.

The Engineers' Club has a sophomore, Lee Windheim, as its president, and Charles Amidon is its vice-president. Joanne Kurtz, president of the W.A.A., and Dorothy Mayhall, vice-president, are both second year students.

Many lesser offices in various school organizations are held by sophomores. Full of pep and personality, this class has lots on the ball. Watch it these next two years — you will see Omaha U. history in the making!

FRESHMEN CLASS

The 1944-45 Omaha University freshman enrollment illustrates the effects of the war on an average college group. There were 257 entering freshmen, 173 girls and 84 men. Some of the boys were attending classes under the G. I. Bill of Rights.

Elmyrta Nufert was president of the freshman class. Fred Dickason was vice-president; Jean Noble, secretary-treasurer; Jeanne Finch, Jean Leimbach, Stuart Borg, and Jim McCauley, Student Council members.

The Freshman Frolics of '48 was presented in the auditorium to a turn-away crowd.

The Freshman Mixer, sponsored by the Student Council, was held October 6.

Pat Smith, freshman, walked off with the "Sweetheart of the Sixth" title. Another freshman winner was Joan Sorenson, who captured the beauty queen title.

JOHN E. WOODS

VETERANS' INFORMATION SERVICE AND PLACEMENT

Twenty-four veterans are attending the University of Omaha under the Servicemen's readjustment acts. To help them plan their programs and to and Servicemen's readjustment acts. To help them plan their programs the University has established a Veteran's Information Service under the direction of former Captain John E. Woods, who has returned from England and France after twenty-five months of service with a fighter squadron of the Army Air Corps. "Am I eligible?"—"How much college education can I get?"—How about disabled veterans?" are among the questions which arise and which Mr. Woods is well equipped to answer.

Mr. Woods is also in charge of vocational guidance and hopes that a vocational guidance clinic may be established in the future. The placement work of the office has been somewhat simplified by the current manpower shortage, but the problem of fitting people to jobs is still of vital importance, whether they are students, ex-students, or graduates.

BEAUTY CONTEST

Henry Busse, nationally famous bandleader, selected the winners of the annual TOMAHAWK beauty contest held at the Fontenelle Hotel, February 12. The winners were Joan Sorenson, first place; Gloria Rees, second place; and Patricia Hasselquist, third place.

Eleven girls were entered. The orchestra leader's manager, Wally Brady, and Ted Emerson, manager of the Orpheum theater, assisted Mr. Busse in judging the girls on a basis of poise, personality, and facial beauty. Mr. Busse declared that "The main difficulty was that there was just too much pulchritude."

KAPPA MU LAMBDA

Since its founding in December, 1936, Kappa Mu Lambda, honorary music fraternity, has continued to uphold the high standards of music and to recognize the achievements of individual members.

Early in October, a candle-light initiation ceremony was held at the home of the president, Joann Mengedoht.

The annual Music Week convocation and tea were given by the fraternity in the spring. Record sessions were held during the noon hour for all university students and faculty members.

Officers for the year were Joann Mengedoht, president; Martyne Akersen, vice-president; Dorothy Lassiter, secretary-treasurer; and John Foley, historian. The fraternity is sponsored by Miss Elizabeth Kohn.

SIGMA PI PHI

Sigma Pi Phi, honorary educational fraternity, under the sponsorship of Dr. L. O. Taylor and Miss Frances Wood, began its activities earlier than usual this year. At the first meeting, Mr. J. Arthur Nelson, principal of Central High School, spoke, emphasizing the idea that the joy of being with young people is far greater than any other compensation which the teacher might receive. In November, Miss Pearl Donohoe of the Omaha Education Association welcomed the new members at an installation service at the University.

A Christmas tea and movie on army education methods were presented. Mrs. Flora Potter, juvenile court director, highlighted the January meeting, and a spring banquet and the annual tea honoring the practice teachers and their supervisors concluded the year's activities. Officers for the year are: Beverly Brace, president, first semester, and Ann Tichy, second semester; Beth Krall, secretary; Jewell Miller, treasurer; and Jack Traver, librarian-historian.

SIGMA TAU DELTA

The Kappa chapter of Sigma Tau Delta, national honorary English fraternity, devotes its meetings to informal discussions of various types of literature. Highlights of the year were a buffet supper at the home of Dr. Boyce and a meeting at which the members read their own literary attempts.

Officers were: Mary Alice Johnson, president; Agnes Stephenson, vice-president and treasurer; and Edith Holmes, secretary.

CHEMISTRY AND PRE-MED CLUBS

The Pre-Med club provides an opportunity for the members to come in direct contact with the medical world. Special speakers and movies are presented at the monthly meetings. Highlight of the club's activities this year was a Thanksgiving banquet, at which Dr. C. W. M. Poynter, dean of the Nebraska College of Medicine, was guest speaker. The club assisted in the promotion of the T.B. Campaign at the University.

The Chemistry Club members were given a practical viewpoint of their interests by prominent men in the professional field. It also met with the Omaha chapter of the American Chemical Society.

DEBATE

University of Omaha debaters marked the current year by attending four meets, presenting a forum at the Dundee Presbyterian Church, and staging a debate with Tarkio University in a convocation.

Coach of the squad, Dr. John L. Stipp, sent his teams into two University of Nebraska tournaments—January 27 and February 23 and 24—clashed his squad with Midland teams at Fremont—February 1—and brought his debaters into Lincoln, on April 12, 13, and 14, for the Pi Kappa Delta, national debating fraternity, meet at Nebraska Wesleyan. The negative team won two and lost three debates at the February Nebraska University tournaments, and the affirmative team won three and lost two. Both teams were victorious in the debate with Tarkio.

Omaha University students who, as members of the squad, shook or nodded their heads over this year's collegiate debate question—"Resolved: That the Federal Government Should Enact Legislation Requiring Compulsory Arbitration of All Labor Disputes"—were Dick Johnson, John Kirkland, Morris Kolnick, Jim McCauley, Marion Mortensen, and Arthur Novacek.

COSMOPOLITAN CLUB

With the promotion of racial and religious tolerance as its purpose, the Cosmopolitan Club was newly organized this year. Its meetings are devoted to informational talks and discussions.

Dr. Leslie Garlough highlighted the first meeting with a scientific explanation of race. The next meeting featured Mr. Kapatrick Okura, a Japanese, and Mr. Raymond Brown of the Urban League. To discuss the points brought out in these talks a panel discussion was held at the next meeting.

As a special project, the Cosmopolitan Club sponsored The Philip Sher essay contest.

Temporary chairman was Jean Holland; Jewell Miller, program chairman; and Pierre Lawson, treasurer.

BAXTER MEMORIAL LECTURE

The Baxter Memorial lectures, given April 5 and 6, were the fifth in a series made possible by a $10,000 gift to the university by the late Mrs. William F. Baxter as a memorial to her husband. This year's lecturer was Dr. Sumner H. Slichter, economist for the Committee for Economic Development and chairman of its Advisory Board. "A Healthy World Economy and Our Chances for a Lasting Peace," and "Sixty Million Jobs," were Dr. Slichter's topics.

In 1941, Dr. Slichter was president of the American Economic Association. He has served as instructor of economics at Harvard and on the staff of the Brookings Institute. Among the many books he has written on economic subjects are "Economic Factors Affecting Industrial Relations Policy in National Defense," and "Union Policies and Industrial Management."

SPORTS

MEN'S SPORTS

Participation in intramurals rounded out the year for members of the men's physical education department under the direction of Graydon Ashton. The sports offered were football, soccer, tennis, badminton, tug-of-war, volley ball, ping pong, and wrestling.

Teams organized for the first semester were the Rover Boys, Tomahawks, Papooses, Goons, Block Busters, 4-F's, Bulldogs, and Cock Roaches. For the second semester the Rover Boys, Tomahawks, Papooses, Goons, and Cock Roaches remained in the competition, with the addition of two new teams, the Ajax and No Credits.

The first semester the Tomahawks came out on top in football and tied the Rover Boys in soccer. First place in both badminton and the tug-of-war competition went to the Papooses. The Rover Boys were the victors in volley ball and the 4-F's placed first in tennis. The No Credits won the singles and doubles in ping pong, and the champion wrestlers were the Rover Boys.

GAMMA SIGMA OMICRON

The Gammas report another year of fun and friendship. The gayest event of the year was an overnight hike held at Camp Brewster on one November week-end. Other activities of 1944 to 1945 will be recalled with pleasure; for instance, the hobo party, the formal initiation, evening theater parties, and pot-luck suppers. Not to be forgotten either are the Swedish smorgasborg dinner, the cabaret rush parties, or the preference banquet.

Officers of the sorority for this year are Elizabeth Davis, president; Dean Johnson, vice-president; Betty Nygaard, secretary; Jane Sauter, treasurer; and Dorothy Ann Drishaus, page. Miss Elizabeth Kaho is the sorority sponsor.

Pledges of Gamma sorority joined with the pledges of the other four sororities to give the school year's biggest dance, the Snow Ball, at the Chermot on December 13. Pledge officers for the first semester were Jean Secord, president; Norma Jacobus, vice-president; Barbara Bergstrom, secretary; and Paula Burden, treasurer.

Gammas are also active in other campus activities. Holding offices are: Dorothy Ann Drishaus, secretary of the Student Council; Jane Sauter, secretary of W.A.A. executive board; and Martyne Akerson, vice-president of Kappa Mu Lambda. Representing Gamma in the Feathers, are Bette Davis, Helene Fransen, and Betty Nygaard. Dorothy Ann Drishaus was a candidate from the sorority for "Sweetheart of the Sixth" in the 6th War Bond Drive. Members of the Inter-sorority council for the year were Bette Davis, treasurer; and Virginia Winholtz.

KAPPA PSI DELTA

The Kappa's big rush party was a Gypsy Rendezvous held at the Blackstone Hotel. The preference banquet was held at the Athletic Club and was followed by a theater party. Active initiation of the pledges was held at the Fontenelle, while informal pledging was at the home of the president. Formal pledging was at the Blackstone Hotel. A Halloween party, informal get-togethers, a Thanksgiving celebration, and a tea given for the alums made up the Kappa fall calendar. Kappa pledges participated in the all-sorority pledge dance at the Chermot, where they had charge of the intermission entertainment.

Marie Brown was candidate for bond queen, and she and Arlene Carlson were candidates in the TOMAHAWK beauty contest.

Kappas holding offices were: Jean Holland, president of the Cosmopolitan Club; Joann Mengedoht, president of Kappa Mu Lambda; Mary Alice Johnson, president of Sigma Tau Delta and the Spanish Club, treasurer of Feathers, and intramural board member; Evelyn Reinhardt, secretary-treasurer of the Spanish Club; Dorothy Lassiter, secretary-treasurer of Kappa Mu Lambda; and Beth Kroll, secretary of Sigma Pi Phi. Mary Alice Johnson was elected to Who's Who. Feathers were Mary Alice Johnson, Jean Holland, Betty Haupt, and Evelyn Reinhardt.

Officers this year were: Jean Holland, president; Betty Gene Haupt, vice-president; Arlene Carlson, secretary; and Colleen Lorenzen, treasurer. Miss Alice Smith and Mrs. John Stipp are the Kappa sponsors.

Our War Job . . .

IN A NATIONAL EMERGENCY such as our country is now engaged, public transportation is of the utmost importance. Thousands of workers concentrated in single areas present a travel problem that only public transportation systems could handle. These thousands of war workers must be delivered to the production lines . . . on time . . . in order to maintain a steady flow of materiel to our fighting men. That is the war job of your public transportation system.

HERE ARE A FEW SUGGESTIONS FOR YOU TO HELP US WITH OUR JOB . . .

- Shop more from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. Avoid the rush hours.
- Have yaur fare ready when boarding the cars or busses.
- Move back in the car. Leave room for other passengers.

You'll win friends faster if you have a good disposition ...

Good-natured people attract others because of the good will they radiate. So, let others see what a good disposition you have. Get in the habit of smiling.

"Fresh up"—keep smiling!

A great self-starter for a smile is sparkling 7-Up. Sip it slowly . . . taste it . . . let it roll over and under your tongue. Its chipper freshness leaves your mouth feeling clean and wide-awake. You "fresh up." You feel like smiling!

To get a "fresh up" and to get a smile, just look for the nearest store displaying a 7-Up sign. Remember—everyone of every age likes 7-Up and 7-Up likes everyone.
